RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Boston, Mass. -- 25X1A9a [REDACTED] Administrative Officer, CIA, will be graduated December 16 from the 12th session of the Program for Management Development conducted by the Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration. This session began August 29.

Participating in the 16-week program were 75 business executives, government, and military leaders. Each was sponsored by his organization as a middle manager of high potential, and they represented 21 states, Washington, D.C., Canada, and 13 overseas nations. PMD is operationally oriented, designed to equip middle managers to handle their day-to-day assignments with a broader perspective and to prepare them to assume increasing responsibility in the years ahead. Including this PMD class, and graduates of the program's forerunner, the Middle Management Program begun in 1954, nearly 1,000 men have completed the program.
